

BHAJAN COMPETITION AT BKVV

An interhouse Bhajan Competition was organized in BKVV on August 5th, 2019 to imbibe spiritual values amongst students. The morning was filled with the intense feeling of devotion. The occasion was graced with the presence of eminent person with extraordinary combination of expertise of Science and Music Mrs. Madhavi Palsokar and Assistant Secretary SVPNS Col A B Gurung.

The programme commenced with the lighting of traditional lamp followed by Guru Paduka stotra. The Chief guest, Mrs. Madhavi Palosokar was felicitated by Col A B Gurung. Vice Principal Mrs. Dipali Chakrabarty introduced the chief guest.

The devotional bhajans were sung by students of class VI-VIII praising Lord Krishna in four different languages. Hindi devotional bhajan 'Shyam Rang Ranga Re' was sung by Amaltas house students, Sanskrit bhajan 'Krishna Janardan' was presented by Gulmohar house, an enchanting Marwari bhajan 'Mithe Ras Se Bharo Re' was presented by Moulshree house and a melodious Marathi Gawlan 'Davya Gudghyane Rangto' was sung by Palash House.

Principal Mrs. J. V. Nagalaskhmidivi appreciated potential and talent of students, gave credit to opportunities given in CCA to enhance students' skills and also praised efforts put in by teachers in such competitions. The first position was bagged by Palash and Amaltas house, second position was secured by Gulmohar and Moulshree house.